About Lifework First Coast

The Lifework journey challenges the mind, identifies a calling, and engages the leader's heart, all within a framework of a Christian worldview following Christ's leadership model. Our program is marked by the participation of prominent local business leaders and nationally known speakers. We invite you to join the journey so that together we can make a transforming impact throughout Jacksonville and the First Coast. Come...

- Discover new purpose in your work – without quitting your job
- Learn practical ways to bring your faith to work and make an impact for eternity
- Interact with experienced Christian business leaders in your community
- Journey with like-minded peers set on making a difference
- Build a network of Christians in business so you don't have to go it alone
